Farm funds – The search is on for agricultural entrepreneurs keen to progress their businesses to the next level. Anyone with a ground breaking business idea for the agricultural sector will be able to pitch their idea in a Dragon's Den style environment for a share of £250,000 worth of investment.

Applications for the nationwide event close on July 7th, with those shortlisted being invited to interview. Finalists will pitch to an expert panel in September. The prize fund is open to entrepreneurs, farmers or students with a great product or concept which could help farmers.
